

Aaron Markell, Information Security Manager

Aaron Markell is the Information Security Manager at the Tampa International Airport. He is an experienced professional with over 20 years specializing in information security, compliance, operational risk, and enterprise security and operations for clients in the government sector, transportation and entertainment industries.