

Below is "a very brief bio for Kevin and me... No picture...We're both too ugly"

Kevin R. Brickey

Kevin Brickey is the Hillsborough County Economist. He forecasts revenue, prepares the 5-year pro forma budget and constructs the economic indicator portion of the county's web site, as well as other economic issues. He previously served as the Florida Department of Labor's Lakeland based Economist.

Mr. Brickey has given numerous presentations on local labor market and economic conditions to Chambers of Commerce, Economic Development Agencies, statewide education meetings, and national Labor Market Information conferences. His comments regarding Central Florida economic conditions have appeared in numerous Florida newspapers as well as national and international press. In addition, he has taught Economics at Florida Southern College in Lakeland.

Mr. Brickey earned his undergraduate degree in Economics from the University of Maryland and a Master of Arts in Economics from The George Washington University.

Bruce G. Dangremond

Bruce manages the Hillsborough County performance management programs and is the audit liaison for external audits affecting the County Administrator's operations. He has largely administered social services and health programs during his 45 years in the public and private sectors. Many of his managerial posts have included quality assurance, monitoring and other control duties. He is also an instructor with the county's career development curriculum.

He completed his undergraduate work in Criminal Justice and Public Administration at the University of Central Florida, earned a Masters in Business Administration from Nova Southeastern University and is ABD in Public Policy at Florida State University. Bruce taught Public Management while at Florida State.
