

Pat Nunes, Manager | Focal Point Data Risk

Patrick Nunes is a Manager in Focal Point's Tampa office. Patrick has experience with financial operational audits, internal controls audits, user access and segregation of duties audits, ERP software selection, and process optimizations. He has experience working with numerous industries including government, insurance, restaurant, retail, and technology. He has performed both finance and IT controls testing for various audit engagements. He is a member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and earned the CFE designation in May of 2016. Patrick earned a Master of Science in Finance from the University of South Florida.