

Veryl White, CISSP, CISA, CISM, CRISC

Veryl White is currently the Information Security and Compliance Manager for a regional retailer with operations in eight states. Prior to this role, Veryl was the Director of Information Technology, responsible for strategic and operational leadership that established, supported and continuously improved information technology strategies. In addition, Veryl stays current with business and cyber security issues by teaching business and IT courses at several colleges and universities. Veryl participated in the development of the Florida Teachers Competency exams for information technology. He was the co-chairman of the curriculum committee that developed the Cyber-Security curriculum and was a member of the committee that developed the Information Technology curriculum for the Florida Department of Education.