

James Molenaar is a licensed attorney and a Certified Fraud Examiner. He has over 30 years' experience beginning as a Law Enforcement Explorer; Emergency Medical Technician, Police Officer, Government Attorney and Prosecutor. Prior to joining the Collier County Clerk of the Court and Comptroller James attended Purdue University, Michigan State College of Law (J.D.), John Marshall Law School – Chicago (LL.M. Information Tech. and Privacy Law), and the University of Florida (MBA). James was an attorney with the Illinois Office of Inspector General as a Medicaid prosecutor; and in 2000 became a prosecutor for the Economic Crimes Unit at the State's Attorney Office in Southwest Florida. Presently, James successfully leads a team of seven internal auditors who audit the Collier County Board of Commissioners that has a budget of one billion dollars.